Mr. Peone violated the terms of his supervised release by associating with an individual engaged in criminal activity and previously convicted of a felony, on or about March 8, 2018.

On March 8, 2018, Mr. Peone was contacted by the Spokane Police Department (SPD). SPD was responding to a stolen vehicle. Mr. Peone was a passenger in the vehicle, along with Ignacio Carrazana. The driver was Destiny Ahenakew. Ms. Ahenakew was arrested and booked into the Spokane County Jail for second degree burglary, first degree criminal trespass, vehicle prowling and theft of a motor vehicle. She also had an outstanding felony arrest warrant. Mr. Carrazana is a convicted felon who is also pending new charges from October 2017 for possession of a stolen vehicle and possession of a controlled substance.
